

SOCIAL JEALOUSY
BODES TROUBLE

MINNESOTA WARFARE TRANS-FERRED TO WASHINGTON.

It May Prevent the Appointment of Ex-Governor Merriam to the Cabinet—His Family and That of Senator Davis Have Long Been at Daggers Draw.

Washington, Dec. 15.—[Special].—The candidacy of Ex-Gov. Merriam, of Minnesota, for the office of secretary of the interior, made vacant by the resignation of Cornelius N. Bliss, may introduce a social war into official circles here. It is no secret to be initiated that the advancement of Senator Cushman K. Davis, first to the senatorship, then to the chairmanship of the committee on foreign relations, and then his appointment as a leading member of the peace commission, has been exceedingly distasteful to Mr. Merriam and other well society people in St. Paul, for with the senator's advancement has come an increased social distinction to his beautiful wife, who has never been recognized by St. Paul society people. Mrs. Davis was a milliner previous to her marriage with the senator. She had been well reared, however, and besides possessing a good education was a woman of tact and refinement, a good whip, enjoying perfect physical health and plenty of ambition. Senator Davis divorced his first wife in order that he might marry her. This, combined with the fact that Mrs. Davis had been a working woman, was sufficient to erect the bars of St. Paul society against her.

When Mrs. Davis went to Washington her grace and beauty attracted much attention. Attempts were made by her St. Paul enemies to prejudice the society of the capital against her, but these were unavailing, and she was soon accorded the recognition due the wife of a senator. Step by step Mr.
Davis has advanced, and with him his wife has been more and more in request by society. This has been gall and wormwood to the St. Paul society people who had repulsed Mrs. Davis, and they have striven in vain to poison public opinion against her. Ex-Gov. Merriam has been the chief of Senator Davis' political opponents, and his wife has been chief among the social perse-cuters of Mrs. Davis. If Gov. Merriam could obtain a seat in the cabinet he would outrank Davis officially, and his wife would take precedence over Mrs.
Davis at all social functions. Hence the anxiety of the anti-Davis clique
to have Merriam appointed to the cabinet vacancy.

But it is not likely that either Senator or Mrs. Davis will consent to permit their enemies to triumph over them in this manner. The senator is credited with having the confidence of the president, who also entertains a high regard for the charming wife of the Minnesotan. Besides he has little patience with the would-be aristocracy of wealth, of which Gov. Merriam is a representative. No doubt Senator Davis will protest vigorously against Merriam's appointment to a cabinet office, and his wife, who is something of a diplomat herself, will use every endeavor in her power to keep her persecutors and traducers out of Washington official and society life. Their opposition was effective in preventing Merriam's selection as one of the original members of the cabinet, and their influence has been steadily increasing day by day ever since.

Friends of the administration would greatly deplore such a social war as the presence of these two families in Washington would precipitate. The intellectual superiority of the Davises is so marked that it is not believed they can be eclipsed by the dollars of the Merriams. It is certain that the two families cannot exist in the community without causing an explosion, which might cause a sensation such as Washington has been a stranger to for many years.

THREE SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Mesdames Sale and Noyes Give Charming Ladies' Afternoon Reception.
Mrs. J. W. Sale and Mrs. W. B.
Noyes were the hostesses at a charming afternoon tea given yesterday afternoon at the Washington street home of Mrs.
Sale. The rooms were prettily decorated, and the refreshments were most tempting. The event proved one of the most delightful of the season.

Mrs. N. O. Clark entertained members of a ladies' whist club yesterday afternoon, at her Mineral Point home.
A pleasant surprise took place at the home of Mrs. Edith O'Neill, No. 5 South High street, Tuesday afternoon, when a number of her friends called to assist her in the celebration of the anniversary of her birth.

ELOPEMENT STIRS THEM UP

Richardson Shoe Company Officials
Treated to a Surprise.

Officials of the Richardson Shoe Company, which moved from Jamesville to Menominee, Mich., are at present much stirred up over an elopement that involves the daughter of one of the officials of the company, who fled from the city with a traveling salesman from Minneapolis. The young lady who is about twenty years of age was supposed to be on the program at a church social.
She was there the early part of the evening but when it came time to render her selection she was not to be found.

It is supposed the young couple left on the St. Paul train for Green Bay or Milwaukee and were married. The elopement is all the talk in Menominee.

RAILROAD MAN WAS INJURED

H. W. Bliss, of This City, Badly Hurt at Green Bay

H. W. Bliss, of this city, is suffering from recent injuries received while at work in Green Bay. He with a crew of men was moving the Chicago & Northwestern ice house. He with four others was pulling on a block and tackle. The rope was not strong enough to hold them and broke. The block flew back and struck Bliss in the face, bruising and cutting it badly. The other men escaped without injury. Most of them are the company's men who were taken north from Jamesville to do this work.

WERE MARRIED LAST EVENING

Butler-Hart Nuptials Performed by Rev.
E. H. Pence.

At the Washington street home of Rev. E. H. Pence at 7:30 o'clock last evening was performed the ceremony that united as husband and wife Miss Rachel Hart, of Owen Sound, Ontario, and Arthur Butler, of this city. The bride was attended by Miss Agnes Cullen, while William Coulter was best man.
Following the marriage the happy couple went direct to their cozy furnished home at 107 Park avenue.

The bride is a well known young lady
and has a host of friends in Jamesville.
The groom is a blacksmith in the employ of M. A. Edgington, Park street.
He is an industrious man worthy the bride he has won. Mr. and Mrs. Butler go immediately to housekeeping. The best wishes of many friends follow them.

DONATE MUCH CASH

SOLICITOR HERE YESTERDAY
SEEKING MONEY.

Owners of Lake Geneva Property Who Reside Here, Donate To Help Along Electric Line Now Building From Harvard to Lake—All Here Favor
Plan.

Owners of property on the shores of Geneva Lake, who reside in this city, were called on yesterday by a solicitor
from Pontanna, Wis., whose business here was to secure cash donations to help along the work that is now well under way towards the building of an electric line across the country from Harvard, Ill., to Geneva Lake, and of which mention was recently made in the columns of the Gazette.

While in this city the solicitor met with a hearty reception, and he was disappointed in the way of securing considerable cash.

When completed and in running order
the improvement will be one that will enhance the value of all property along the shores of the lake.

Of the amount of cash to be raised the city of Harvard is asked to raise $12,000, the village of Walworth $2,500
and the village of Pontanna $800.

The right of way has been secured from Harvard to the Grumb farm near Walworth, and the balance of the distance to the lake will be secured without any trouble. The terminus will be at the end of the lake at Reid's park,
where a large hotel will soon be erected.

It is expected that cars will be in running order over the entire line by June 1, 1899.

JOAQUIN MILLER IS COMING

Poet of the Sierras Will Lecture on His Klondike Experiences.

The people of Jamesville are to be congratulated in having an opportunity to hear the "Poet of the Sierras" as he is generally called, give his observations of men and nature. Joaquin Miller is

JOAQUIN MILLER.

not only a poet but a philosopher, traveller, and an interesting speaker. Last winter he went with a newspaper correspondent to Alaska. He made a trip of over five hundred miles along the frozen Yukon river in the dead of winter, dragging his own sled and outfit the entire distance, thus demonstrating a courage and physical endurance almost without equal. In his public talks he gives his experiences during that terrible journey. It is one of the most thrilling narratives that has come to us from the boundless land of ice and gold.

THE RED MEN CAMP AT KOSHKONONG

THREE FAMILIES DWELT NEAR THE LAKE.

Interesting Story Written For The Milwaukee Sentinel by the Late Miss Hannah L. Skavlem.—Burial of a Babe—The Habits of the Sons of the Forest.

The following article, which first appeared in The Milwaukee Sentinel, was written by the late Miss Hannah L. Skavlem, and shows plainly, the gift with which Miss Skavlem was endowed. "There is an exquisite appropriateness in associating the homely commonplace of Indian life with the beautiful in nature that imparts a unique sentiment and pathos to the fading annals of a decaying race—our own American Indians. They are the simplest and most crude of Nature's children. Their earth mounds, those huge grotesque imitations of birds and animals that lie scattered throughout the United States, will yet outlast the time-defying pyramids, while the woods, lake shores and river banks of their favorite haunts will ever be pervaded with the subtle, wait-like charms of their early Indian memories.

"Just such a suggestive place as this is Lake Koshkonong in Southern Wisconsin—at one time the favorite hunting grounds of many roving bands of Indians. There is much about it now to recall its earlier associations—Indian legends galore, bits of broken pottery, grinding stones, hatchets and stone drills, copper rings and kettles, glass beads and bone fishhooks, arrow and spearheads that would seem to have been sown broadcast beneath the fields of waving corn and grain. On the higher shores of the lake, underneath the lumpy and mounds that cover every prominent knoll, lie the mouldering bones of prehistoric red men.

"I think 'Koshkonong'—the lake on which we dwell—must have been the inner vision and inspiration for these lines of Bryant.

"Now they are gone, gone as thy setting blaze Goes down the west, while night is pressing on.

And with them the old tale of better days And trophies of remembered savor, are gone. You field that gives the harvest, where the plough Strikes the white bone, is all that tells the story now.

I stand upon their ashes in thy beam, The offspring of another race, I stand, Beside a stream they loved, this valley stream; And where the night-fires of the quivered band Showed the grey oaks by fits, and war-song rang, I teach the quiet shades the strains of this new tongue."

Winter Home of Indians

"In one of the loneliest, most secluded spots on the northern shore of the lake in the midst of a wilderness of swampy wood, close beside the banks of Koshkonong creek, stands all that remains of Lake Koshkonong's last Indian village. It is as if nature herself would keep sacred this last vestige of a by-gone race—it is so completely hidden under a canopy of green. Through the dense foliage the sunlight falls in a glimmering golden shower that illuminates but scarcely dispels the melan choly gloom of the interior, which contains the denuded frames of a few scattered wigwags and a debris of whitening bones and mouldering tatters of fur, rush mats and pieces of clothing.

"Until within the last few years a small band of Chippewas from the northern part of the state have wintered here, but in the spring of 1895 they broke up camp for the last time and Koshkonong knows them no more. Their camp or village numbered five lodges and their band was composed of the members of three separate families. These were Charlie Decorah and his squaw—Charlie was about 50 years old and the 'medicine man'—Moses Decorah, squaw and three papooses; Henry Decorah and squaw. Henry was the learned man of the party, and could read and write English fairly well; Charlie Green and squaw and War Club, squaw and one papoose.

Personnel and Peculiarities.

"Old Grandma Decorah, mother of Charlie, Moses and Henry Decorah, appeared to be at least 100 years old, and was so crippled and bent that she could not walk. She seemed to be well cared for by her sons. Charlie Green's mother was also a very old squaw, but remarkably smart and active. She would rustle around the woods gathering fagots and was an expert at dressing the dead and frozen carcasses of the calves or pig that they had gathered up around the neighborhood. A dead calf or hog was all good meat for the Indians, and they lived more on carrion than on fresh meat. With old mother Green lived her daughter, a comely dame apparently some years past the meridian of life. She was the one and only bachelor maid in the community. Trapped Muskrat and Mink

"The Indians were quite industrious in their trapping for muskrat and mink. Their winter's work amounted to about $200. They also cut considerable cordwood for some of the neighboring farmers. When cutting wood the first thing they did was to build up a fire. Then some of them would swing the axe while the others sat around and warmed themselves. Thus they took turns, one keeping the bonfire bright and big. The women when not engaged in attending to their simple household duties, gathered wood and watched the setlines. In their spare moments they made rush mats and wove baskets of ashwood.

Lived in Harmony.

"Their domestic relations were of a superior quality inasmuch as they lived very peacefully together. Occasionally to vary the monotony of their conjugal felicity or perhaps in imitation of the ways of their white brothers, they could be (without recourse to the law, however) an amicable exchanging of wives. They appeared to be honest Indians. At one time they were indebted to the storekeeper of Sumner to the amount of nearly $100.

"When they had disposed of their furs, the first thing they did was to fill up on poor whisky, hire a livery outfit at Edgerton and drive from there over to Sumner in the middle of the night. Then they very unceremoniously awoke Mr. Kump, the storekeeper, from his slumbers to pay him their dues. But they found themselves a little short as it took 'heap money for whisky.' However, they turned over to Mr. Kump what money they had left, something over $80 in gold.

Sang the Death Song

"The last Indian burial was in the spring of 1894, when the little son of Moses Decorah died. For several nights before and after the death of the child, the old trees that line the banks of Koshkonong creek and stand sentinel over the abandoned village echoed the death song of perhaps the last Indian who will ever take his departure to the happy hunting grounds in truly aboriginal style. For a burial casket they cut in two one of their canoes, in which little Moses Decorah now sleeps in the Summer cemetery.

THE WRECK OF THE IRON CLIFF IN CHICAGO HARBOR. FROM HARPER'S WEEKLY

AFTER A DRAWING BY H. REUTERDAHL. Reproduced from Harper's Weekly. By Permission

Copyright, 1898, by Harper & Brothers

The year that is drawing to a close has proved one of the most disastrous in the entire history of navigation. Many a staunch vessel has gone down and many gallant sailors are mourned in houses all over the world. The ill-fated Bourgogne of course heads the list. The loss of life resulting from her collision with the Cromartyshire stands almost without parallel in maritime annals. And as if the fogs that caused her destruction did not add enough to the dangers of the sea, the storms of this year have been of extraordinary violence and duration. Only a few weeks ago the steamer Mobergan ran on the shore in the English Channel and the loss of a hundred lives was reported. And now comes the terrible year on the sea, and has been an unusually busy twelve months for the life savers. Hardly a week has passed without a striking instance of their bravery and skill in snatching lives out of the very teeth of the surf. It needs the most wonderful staying powers to endure the long pull through the surf, life-line accurately while the life-boat reels and staggers on the crest of a towering breaker, and nerves of steel to withstand the buffeting of the waves and the stinging bite of the icy salt spray. One must see the surf on Cape Cod or on Nantucket under a raging northeaster to understand and appreciate the self sacrificing life of Uncle Sam's life-savers. On the great lakes, also, the storms of the past year were unusual in force and frequency, and the life-saving stations of the inland seas have done yeoman service. Our illustration is taken from a striking life-like drawing in Harper's Weekly by the well-known artist, Reuterdahl, and depicts with great accuracy the gallant rescue of the men of the steamer Iron Cliff that was wrecked off the government breakwater Portland has foundered in the open sea off Cape Cod, carrying down with her one hundred and sixty souls. It is more than probable that scores of New England coasting vessels met destruction in the same storm, and the wives and mothers of Gloucester and Marblehead fishermen are scanning the sea-line anxiously for a first glimpse of the top sails of the schooners that bear their sons and husbands and sweethearts. It has, indeed, been a long, terrible year on the sea, and has been an unusually busy twelve months for the life savers. Hardly a week has passed without a striking instance of their bravery and skill in snatching lives out of the very teeth of the surf. It needs the most wonderful staying powers to endure the long pull through the surf,

MONEY FOR MILITIA.

National Guardsmen to Ask for Increased Appropriations.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—National guardsmen want more money. They think the United States government has not been liberal enough with them heretofore, and now they want a great deal more money from it. How much they will agree upon as the sum for which they will appeal will be decided today at the convention of the Interstate National Guard association. The organization represents the guard of all the states, and is composed of delegates appointed by the adjutant-general of each state. Col. Nicholas Senn of Chicago introduced a resolution yesterday calling on the government to add $1,000,000 to its annual appropriation of $400,000 for the citizen soldiers. The consideration of this resolution and the discussion of a bill prepared by Col. H. F. Hitchcock of the Pennsylvania National guard will be taken up today.

MONEY SCARCE IN GERMANY.

Reported to Be the Cause of Her Leaning Toward the United States.

London, Dec. 15.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says:

"In Austrian commercial and financial circles it is believed that Germany's leaning toward Great Britain and the United States is due to other than political considerations. The strain imposed upon the Berlin money market by the forced development of German trade is beginning to tell severely on German finance."

"For the satisfaction of seizing new markets, terms have been granted which German industrial enterprise is ill able to afford. This abnormal condition has produced a situation which renders it advisable that the sympathies of the British and American money markets should not be estranged."

THE INS AND OUTS

Of the meat business are many and diverse. The butcher who promises you tender, juicy meats but does not give them to you is perhaps not always at fault. He can't give them to you if he hasn't them to give. Much depends on buying the proper kind of stock. We understand every kind in the trade, know where and how to buy, and the result of giving just the kind of meat to our customers they desire. Our trade increases daily so it must be so.

LOCAL EVIDENCE.

One Line of Janesville Evidence is Worth a Column of Foreign Testimony.

Make a mental note of this. The endorser is well known in Janesville. His veracity is unquestioned. You are reading local evidence. Investigating home testimony. Janesville news for Janesville people.

Suspicion can't lurk around it. Honesty is its prominent character. Home endorment its salient point. Mr. Thos. Platt of 281 South Main St. says: "I doctored off and on for forty years, attempting to rid myself of backache, which came on by spells, very painful when at their height and even when somewhat allayed, the dull aching grinding was sure to manifest itself. It I overtaxed myself, caught cold or did any work which brought a strain on the muscles of the back. Often I have been so lame and sore that there were days I was confined to my room almost helpless, certainly unable to get up or down. Like a great many other people in Janesville I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the Janesville Co's. drug store, led to do so by the regular advertisement which riveted my attention. After taking a thorough course of the remedy I was able to go to the quarry and sling an eighteen pound hammer without showing any signs of a recurrence. If I am subjected to future attacks I know what remedy to employ."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the U. S.: Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

EXPENSES OF CANDIDATES.

Madison Journal: The law providing that candidates for offices must file public reports as to their expenses, is a good deal of a humbug, and we don't believe that it accomplishes any particularly good purpose. There are many reasons for believing that the law is not strictly complied with, and that the list of expenses filed do not contain true statements of actual expenses incurred. The items also are altogether too indefinite to accomplish any good result, many of the expenditures being classed under the convenient, but altogether unintelligible head of "sundries." As to filing complete statement we will cite one instance in this city. A certain candidate for office reports that he paid to a printing company here $184.24 for printing. Presumably this was for circulars, and that sort of thing. As a matter of fact, this company issued a paper. The State, and distributed for many weeks 30,000 copies free each week throughout the state. These papers could not have been issued for less than $300 per week, at the lowest possible actual cost of publishing and circulating them. They were distributed for about three months, notices being stamped on them that the subscription was paid. Here was an expense of over $3,000 incurred solely in behalf of a certain candidate. Now either all this work was donated by one printing company, paid for by other parties, or else the report on file of the candidate in whose interest it was circulated, does not give the facts. As a matter of fact, reports of candidates should show not only what money of their own they expended, but what was contributed by others to aid their candidacies. The object of the law is to inform the public of the amount and character of the expenditures in behalf of candidates, and any report which does not give this information is an evasion, it is not a violation of the law. The law had better be amended or repealed by the next legislature. In its present form it does not attain the object sought by its enactment.

Lieutenant L. T. Richardson, of this city, will probably see service in the Philippines, his regiment, the Twentieth Infantry having been ordered to prepare to leave for Manila, on a month's notice. It is the intention of the war department to relieve the volunteer regiments at Manila as soon as possible, putting regulars in their places.

There are two very important questions that the Twilight club has not yet discussed—the matter of keeping that depot intact, and the problem of the damage suits. If the club would devote an evening to these two subjects, doubtless much good would be accomplished.

Christmas Candies.

Do not buy cheap grocery store candies, even if they do come in ton lots. Generally the larger the lot the cheaper the grade of candy. For the sake of a few cents do not run the risk of injuring the health of your children by giving them adulterated goods. When you see candies advertised for less than the raw material costs for pure candy, you may be sure they are not pure. Our can for the money. Our motto is "Not how Cheap, but how Good." We buy from the best factories in the northwest and can sell pure candy as cheap as anyone. Call and be convinced.

F. W. BENEKE TAKES APPLEBY'S PLACE

POLICE COMMISSIONERS MAKE APPOINTMENT.

The New Officer Is a Most Worthy Man and Is Capable of Filling the Position—Appleby Hands in His Resignation—Beneke Will Go On Duty Within a Few Days.

Frederick W. Beneke, of 58 Highland avenue, has been appointed a police officer for the city of Janesville to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. H. Appleby.

Officer Beneke will go on duty within the next few days. His appointments have just been made by the board of police commissioners composed of J. P. Baker, W. S. Jeffris, Victor P. Richardson and T. S. Nolan.

This appointment gives the city a man well worthy the place, and that he is suited for the position he has sought these many weeks past, seems to be the opinion of all who have been personally acquainted with him for years. He is fearless, of fine physique, weighs 190 pounds, and is thirty-three years of age.

For several months Mr. Beneke was employed at the Paul Gehrke bakery on North Main street, and for the past fifteen years has made this city his home. He is possessed of a host of friends who will extend congratulations on his appointment.

W. H. Appleby, the retiring officer, who, on the first Monday in January next assumes the office of sheriff of Rock county, leaves the local police force with a record that he may well feel proud of. During the past two years he was always in the right place at the right time, and no matter what the emergency was he was never found wanting. Chief Hogan speaks in the highest terms of his good work, and says that a better man never filled the place. The citizens of Janesville may well congratulate themselves that this efficient officer is to remain in our midst as sheriff.

Sheriff T. L. Acheson, who on the first Monday in January next will turn the keys of the county to Mr. Appleby, leaves the service with nothing but the highest respect and good wishes of every law-abiding citizen in the entire county. Since entering the sheriff's office he has been untiring in his efforts to do right by all, and it is not in the way of flattery to state that a more popular and better suited man never filled the place. Sheriff Acheson has had many difficult cases to deal with since he assumed office, and in every instance he was found fully equal to the occasion. He has rented the former Penner Kimball residence at the corner of Main and South Second street, and will take up his home there at the expiration of his term of office. He has not yet made up his mind what part he will play in the business world, but in whatever he undertakes the best wishes of hosts of friends will follow him wherever he goes.

MUSTER ROLL IN GOVERNOR'S HANDS

SIXTY-FIVE MEMBERS ARE CURED.

Assistant Quartermaster-General Caldwell was here today and will Muster In and Inspect New Company—State Will Appropriate Cash—Will Wear Canvas Uniforms

The muster roll, containing the names of sixty-five young men of Janesville who will comprise the new military company, was forwarded to Madison last evening, and is now in Governor Scofield's hands for inspection.

Assistant Quartermaster-General Caldwell was in the city today, and stated that in all probability he would be sent here to muster in the company. The same night they are mustered in they will be inspected, and the entire work will be conducted in the Armory.

No definite day has yet been set, but in all probability it will be the last week in this month, as Quartermaster Caldwell inspects and musters in the Beloit company on Monday evening and the Madison company on Thursday of next week. The muster roll containing the local names will be obliged to remain at Madison ten days before Quartermaster Caldwell can act.

Those in the city who signed the roll since the last list was published in the Gazette are:

H. K. White, Edwin Baumann, Fred Pierson, Arthur Valentine, Burt Hill, Ralph Inman, J. F. Rindolph, Fred Jeffris, Leo Brownell, Burr Scott.

The mustering in of the local company this year will mean to them an appropriation of about $650 that comes from the state, and which they would not receive were they to put the matter off till next month.

The company will start out with a membership list that the citizens may well feel proud of. The list comprises sixty-five able bodied young men, many of whom have seen military service.

The ceremony of mustering will consist in signing the muster roll, swearing in and inspection by Col. Caldwell. After the company is mustered in the officers will be elected.

Just who these officers will be remains to be seen.

As stated before by The Gazette, the company will retain its old letter and former rank in the regiment. It will be known as Company A, First Regiment, Wisconsin National Guard.

One of the departures of the state military service next year will be the equipment of the soldiers with canvas uniforms like those worn in Cuba and Porto Rico in the recent war. These will be in addition to the regular blue uniform. The latter will all be new except the blankets and overcoats, which will all be repaired and placed in almost as good condition as new.

HAVE A COLD RECEPTION

Scalchi Concert Company Entertained an Indifferent Audience

The operatic concert given last evening by the Scalchi company was not a success financially. Notwithstanding the demand for first class attractions here, the public studiously avoids such entertainments as give promise of being above the ordinary in point of merit.

But while last night's concert was meritorious in all its parts it was not extraordinary. Mme. Scalchi is robust in figure, but her voice is far from pleasing, being uneven in timbre and somewhat coarse in quality. There have been a score of contraltos upon the American lyric stage in the past twenty years vastly her superior both in natural gifts and acquired proficiency in her art. She lacks grace, and has evidently but little idea of expression. Her vocalization was colorless, wholly mechanical, and failed to awaken enthusiasm, though as a matter of form she was called back after each selection. Her recalls, however, lacked the spontaneity of the applause that greeted her associates.

Mlle Helne Noldi is a soprano who betrays painstaking effort to make the most of a voice of ordinary qualities. She is lacking in chest tone, but in the upper register pleases. Signor Canzio has a good tenor voice well trained. His rendering of the aria from "Martha," "M'appari tuti," was exceedingly well done. Signor Alberti is an excellent baritone who would create a better effect if his rendering was less strained in appearance. He seeks to convey the impression that he is exerting himself to his utmost, whereas his voice is of such quality as to easily compass far more difficult selections than any he essayed last evening.

The quartette from "Rigoletto" was disappointing. None of the artists appeared to care greatly whether they pleased the audience or not.

The second part consisted of two scenes from the fourth act of "Il Trovatore." It was somewhat of a disappointment, as fragments invariably are, yet was in many respects the most enjoyable feature of the program. The entertainment as a whole was worthy of a better patronage than it received.

A NEW FEDERAL BUILDING HERE

BILL INTRODUCED BY CON- GRESSMAN COOPER.

It Provides for a Seventy-Five Thousand Dollar Structure—Its Location May Lead to the Renewal of an Old Controversy—Structure Will Be Fireproof.

Yesterday Congressman Henry A. Cooper re-introduced in the house his bill of last year appropriating $75,000 for the construction of a new public building in Janesville. Having thus obtained an early start he hopes to secure consideration of the measure before the close of the present session.

The need of a new government building in this city has long been felt. The present quarters occupied by the post-office are too contracted for the proper dispatch of business, while there are no rooms in which the deputy collector of internal revenue can find lodgment, nor are there quarters for other federal officials who may be called here on business.

The introduction of this bill will doubtless result in renewing the controversy as to the locality to be selected for the new structure. Property owners on the east side have long desired to effect a removal of the government offices to the vicinity of Milwaukee and Bluff streets, where an eligible site may be had. The west side, on the other hand, insist that that section is the most advantageous; that the bulk of the business is transacted there, and the convenience of the public will be best promoted by keeping it in its present location or at some point not far removed from it. This controversy, however, should not be permitted to interfere with the passage of the appropriation bill. It should be the aim of all citizens to assist in its passage by every means in their power. They can settle the location after the money is secured.

A building such as is contemplated in Mr. Cooper's bill will be a credit to the city. It is intended to construct it wholly of stone and iron so as to make it absolutely fireproof. More than a year will be consumed in its erection, and during that time many of our city artisans will have steady and profitable employment.

LIBERAL PARTY IN DANGER.

Is Described as Without a Policy or Leader.

JOHN MORLEY DESPONDENT.

The Retirement of Sir William Vernon Harcourt from the Head of the British Liberals Has Given That Party a Serious Blow.

London, Dec. 15.—Harcourt's retirement from the liberal leadership came as a complete surprise, though it had been apparent that the movement for Rosebery's restoration would take definite shape before the assembling of parliament in February.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman is suggested as Harcourt's successor as leader of the opposition in the house of commons. He is a shrewd, able Scotchman, with keen wit and a large fortune. He was war secretary in Gladstone's last cabinet. Asquith is also mentioned, but personally he is unpopular owing to his disagreeable manner.

Rosebery's own disposition is to await the development of events before accepting the leadership of the party, but Harcourt's letter is calculated to force his hand, as Harcourt throws the responsibility for his retirement on Rosebery and his friends. It is believed, therefore, Rosebery will be compelled to come forward when parliament opens and take the leadership of the party in the house of lords, at present held by Lord Kimberley.

The liberal party is in a deplorable plight. It has neither a policy nor a leader. It is rent into half a dozen sections. Its organizations and funds are at the lowest ebb. By sinking home rule and adopting sham imperialism it is hoped it may regain the support of wealthy liberals who joined the unionist party through dislike of Gladstone's Irish policy.

John Morley is utterly depressed by the falling away of liberal ardor for the reforms created and sustained by Gladstone. He said to a liberal member of parliament: "I fear the liberal party will not regain power for twenty years. It will be so weakened and disintegrated that the house of lords can safely thwart all its efforts at reform."

Morley, who was a personal friend and admirer of Rosebery, utterly lost faith in him during his brief premiership. He regards his return as disastrous and intends to devote all his time for the next two years to his life of Gladstone. Both Harcourt and Morley entirely disapprove the action of Rosebery and their own principal colleagues, Asquith, Bannerman and Sir Henry Fowler, in dropping home rule and pandering to the jingo sentiment roused in the country by the tory foreign policy.

Too Long to Cable. Washington, Dec. 15.—The state department has ascertained that the text of the treaty of peace is entirely too long to send by cable, so a copy will be mailed to Washington by the American peace commissioners. The treaty and accompanying documents consist of 600 typewritten pages.

Pope to Issue a Proclamation. Rome, Dec. 15.—The Pope is about to issue a proclamation to the French clergy ordering them to observe the greatest reserve in regard to the present crisis.

Duties on Grain Stand. Paris, Dec. 15.—In the chamber of deputies Prime Minister Dupuy announced that the government would not withdraw the duty imposed upon grain.

Extra Session in Kansas. Topeka, Kan., Dec. 15.—Gov. Leedy will call an extra session of the legislature for Wednesday of next week. The object of the session is to enact laws in accord with the populist state platform, adopted last summer.

FAILS TO ASK ANTI-TRUST LAW.

National Board of Trade Splits on a Recommendation to Congress. Washington, Dec. 15.—The National Board of Trade Wednesday adopted resolutions urging upon congress the importance of enacting a national trade-mark registration law and another indorsing the bill now pending in congress providing for a naval reserve. An anti-trust resolution met with a vote of 34 and 19 against, and for lack of a two-thirds majority was declared lost. Construction by the United States government of the Nicaragua canal was favored and amendments to the interstate commerce law were recommended, so as to better regulate railroad rates. A gold standard, the retirement of all kinds of paper currency issued by the government and the issuance of currency by banks were also recommended for congressional enactment.

Want Text Books at Cost. Springfield, Ill., Dec. 15.—The Illinois State Grange, in annual session, adopted three resolutions which are out of the ordinary, and each will be presented to the next general assembly and legislation will be asked. One requests a law prohibiting the killing of quail for five years, after which they shall only be hunted in the month of November. Another recommends the passage of an amendment to the sparrow law, so that a bounty will be paid during the entire year. The third recommends that the state furnish all text books used in the public schools at cost, the work to be done by convict labor.

Pond's Extract

Why not something else? Because Dr. J. J. Thomas says: "It is incomparably superior to any extract of Hamamelis I have ever used." Dr. O. G. Randall says: "Nothing can equal Pond's Extract. I have tested others, and yours is four times as strong as the best." Dr. J. C. Mitchell says: "Pond's Extract of Hamamelis Virginia is the only reliable article I have found." Dr. H. K. Weiler says: "The difference between Pond's Extract and so-called Witch Hazel is the difference between a cent and a dollar." Dr. H. F. Merrill says: "It is far superior to any I have used in strength and purity." Dr. R. J. Harrison says: "I have never found any extract equal to Pond's." Dr. Powell says: "Hereafter I shall use no other than Pond's Extract."

And that's why.

ONE OF THE BEST FEATURES

OF Pyramid Pile Cure Is the fact that it cures every form of piles without one particle of pain. This desirable point is not obtained by the use of injurious ointments which simply deaden and paralyze the nerves of the parts and make matters worse in the long run. But it is done solely by its remarkable healing and soothing effects. And while it thus gives immediate relief, at the same time the disease is not merely checked, but a radical cure is rapidly accomplished.

And the point we want to make clear is that all this is done without a particle of pain.

This fact is one reason for the great popularity of the Pyramid Pile Cure and constitutes one very great difference between it and almost any other kind of treatment for piles.

Every kind of surgical operation for piles is excruciatingly painful besides endangering the life of the patient and in most cases it is not to be compared with the Pyramid Cure, neither in making successful cures without pain nor in cheapness and safety.

The Pyramid Pile Cure has been before the public too long, and its merits recognized by too many people to allow it to be classed with the many salves, suppositories, pills, etc., and you run no risk in trying it, as is often the case with new and untried preparations.

If you are ever troubled with any form of piles or rectal disease do not forget the Pyramid Pile Cure. Prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists at 50 cts. per package.

DO LITTLE WORK.

Federation of Labor Convention Wait on Committees.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 15.—The Federation of Labor convention did not accomplish a great deal Wednesday for the reason that the committees had not been able to consider the many resolutions that were sent to them.

A resolution was adopted declaring that the decision of the supreme court on the income tax was not in accord with the spirit of the constitution and the wish of the people, and requesting congress to enact legislation making an income tax a part of the general taxes of the people.

The anti-scalping act was condemned. The incoming executive council was instructed to use the full power of the federation in an effort to prevent the further encroachment of convict-made products on the open market and finally to stamp out such competition.

It is said that the opposition to the re-election of President Gompers, so far as the socialists are concerned, has failed.

Rescued from the Londonian.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 15.—A happy sequel to the arrival here a week ago of the British ship Vedamore of the Johnston line of Liverpool, with 45 survivors of the wrecked British steamship Londonian, was the passing in Cape Henry Wednesday of the North German Lloyd line chartered steamship Maria Rickmers, which signaled that she had eight of the Londonian's crew aboard.

A cough is not like a fever. It does not have to run a certain course. Cure it quickly and effectually with One Minute Cough Cure, the best remedy for all ages and for the most severe cases. We recommend it because it's good. People's Drug Co., Corner Main and Milwaukee St.

Diphtheria Hits Princeton.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 15.—Princeton is threatened with an epidemic of diphtheria and there is a possibility of the Christmas holidays being extended beyond the customary two weeks. There are several cases of mild diphtheritic sore throat in and about the college, and the faculty is employing every means in its power to isolate the sickness.

What Do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called Grain-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health, you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15 and 25c.

Endorsed by prominent physicians. Look for the name "WARMBACK" and this label:

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX.

Our Big Line of $12 00 Ulsters
